U.S. Names 5-Man Panel
To Disarmament Board

WASHINGTON, May 24—(AP)—A five-member panel of consultants has been set up by the state department to advise the government on work of the United Nations disarmament commission.

The state department announced formation of the panel Friday. The group includes Dr. Vannevar Bush of the Carnegie Institute; John Dickey, president of Dartmouth college; Allen W. Dulles, deputy director of the central intelligence agency; Joseph E. Johnson of the Carnegie Endowment for International peace, and J. Robert Oppenheimer, atomic scientist and director of the Princeton university institute for advanced study.
